

Targeted HealthCare Marketing

Ameribase Digital's Healthcare segments are perfect for marketers looking to reach health, wellness & healing product buyers

Do you have products or services to market to consumers interested in different types of healthcare? Our Healthcare segments are multi-channel and can be used across telemarketing, email & direct mail, social, mobile, CTV and other digital channels.

The Covid-19 pandemic has made the subject of healthcare top of mind for many Americans and, according to Allianz Life, 57% now say it is their key focus area for 2021.

Sourced from PII data, online mixed data, cookie to cookie syncs and location data, our privacy-compliant Healthcare segments offer highly accurate and quality data with vast scale. Choose Ameribase Digital's data and start marketing your products or services today.

We can also build you a custom audience for an even more targeted campaign using our demographic data. Filter by age, ethnicity, gender, income & location.
